

Jihad, Jehovah and Jesus

Seminar on Theistic Faiths

Saturday, June 14th, 8:40 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

West Side Presbyterian
3601 California SW, West Seattle

- What do Muslims believe?
- Was Mohammed really a prophet of God?
- Did Western culture invent the idea of God?
- Can Jesus save Islam?
- What happens when a Muslim meets Jesus?

Speakers

Don Richardson is the well-known author of Peace Child and Eternity in Their Hearts, which changed how many Christians see the world. Secrets of the Koran, his new book, is a frank critique of Islam.

Mark Lori-Amini was born in Iran, into a pious Muslim family. His introduction to Jesus was as a Healer who might help him recover from a crippling auto accident.

David Marshall, author of Jesus and the Religions of Man and Can Jesus Save Islam?, is founder of the Kuai

Mu Institute for Christianity and World Cultures. David is a West Seattle native.

From Previous Seminars

"Helpful, informative – overall very congenial spirit."

"I really enjoyed all parts of the seminar. I now have at least a good basic understanding of the difference between Christianity and all other religions."

"Speakers were well-qualified. It was an honest presentation of the world religions, as well as their relationship to Christianity. It was what was advertised and expected – the optimistic expectation."

"Wonderful! Great! Do it again."

Details: Seminar attendance is free. An offering will be taken for the new ministry of the Kuai Mu Institute. Relevant books will be available for sale. (Sorry, credit cards not accepted.)
